A BIG CROWD

To Witness the Battle of Santiago
Last Night.

La Belle park was crowded with people last night to witness the fireworks display advertised as a reproduction of the battle of Santiago.
They swarmed there almost as much as they did on the night of July 4. Of the production, perhaps the least said
the better, so far as satisfaction of those concerned goes. It did not come up to the expectations of a majority of them.

The jam on the cars was unusual,
but the crowd was handled. Coming back, there came near being a serious accident when the passengers on a crowded car thought the car was going to turn over. One lady attempted to get through a window, and because stuck, while several excited persons inside hurled children through the windows. Fortunately, however, no one was hurt.

The theater was packed, there not being standing room.

PORTO RICO!

General Miles With the First Detachment of the Invading Army
May Leave Santiago Today.

HE DID NOT START YESTERDAY.

The Government Will Advertise for Bids
Tomorrow for Transporting Captured
Spaniards to Spain.

ADMIRAL CAMARA'S FLEET IS ON ITS WAY HOME.

Scripps-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—It was stated this morning at the war department, by the end of this week a part of the invading army will reach Porto Rico.

Admiral Sampson will have charge of the naval operations.
It is understood that a general blockade of the entire island will be effected before the attack upon San Juan is made.

General Miles did not leave Siboney for Porto Rico yesterday as he did not receive orders to do so from Washington. He will leave as soon as possible and probably may get away today with the first detachment of the invading army.

THE GOVERNMENT WANTS BIDS.

Scripps-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—Col. Hecker, in charge of the transportation of American troops for the war department, went to New York today, where he will open bids tomorrow for the transportation of General Toral's troops to Spain.

Army surgeons were today ordered by the war department to secure the discharge of the volunteers not physically qualified to stand the hot southern climates who have entered the service.

RUMORED CARLIST UPRISING.

Scripps-McRae Service.
LONDON, July 19.—A dispatch from Madrid received here today says it is rumored there that the recent suspension of the constitution has caused a Carlist uprising at Barco de Valde Orras, and the local authorities are unable to cope with them.

CAMARA'S FLEET IS GOING HOME.

Scripps-McRae Service.
MARSEILLES, July 19.—A steamer which arrived here last evening reports having sighted Admiral Camara's fleet off Tunis on July 16. The Palayo had evidently had an accident, as she was being towed.

22,789 PRISONERS IN SANTIAGO.

Scripps-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—This dispatch was received early this morning
PLAYA DEL ESTE, July 18.—To Adjutant General Corbin—The roster of Spanish prisoners included in the surrender of Santiago has just been handed in this afternoon by General Toral. The total number is 22,789.
(Signed) SHAFER.

AMERICAN TRANSPORTS IN SANTIAGO HARBOR.

Scripps-McRae Service.
NEW YORK, July 19.—A Journal dispatch from Playa del Este says:
All of the American transport ships which have been at Agudores, Bisquini and elsewhere along the coast, passed Morro castle and entered the harbor of Santiago this afternoon. Twenty of them were unable to pass the wreck of the Merrimac, and it may be necessary to blow up the Merrimac to let them pass.

EXPEDITION LEAVES TODAY.

Scripps-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—Secretary of War Alger today told the newspaper men the Porto Rico expedition had started from various points or would later in the day. He said General Miles had been ordered to leave on the Yale from Santiago.

He stated all the Spanish prisoners, 22,789, mentioned by Shafter in his report today were in the city of Santiago and did not include Spanish troops in other places in surrendered zone, numbering between ten and twelve thousand more. This will make the number of Spaniards to be sent home nearly 35,000.

WATSON'S FLEET.

It Is Expected That the Squadron
Will Be On Its Way to Spain by Friday.

Washington, July 19.—Commodore Watson's formidable squadron of battleships and protected and auxiliary cruisers will leave on Friday or Saturday for Spain. Additional battle ships have been added to the fleet.
These ships are now at Guantanamo
preparing for the voyage and work
before them, and repairs are being effected by the engineer repair ship Vulcan.

Department officials trust that all the battleships will be in condition to join the Eastern squadron, but should it be found that more repairs are necessary than can be made the ships reported on will be retained under Admiral Sampson's command. The Iowa and Indiana are reported to be in a very foul condition.

The authorities hope that as finally made up Commodore Watson's fleet will consist of these vessels: Battleships Oregon, Massachusetts, Indiana, Iowa and Texas, the protected cruisers Newark and New Orleans
and the auxiliary cruisers Dixie, Yankee and Yosemite.

It will be determined within the next day or two whether to further increase the fleet by adding the cruisers Columbia and Minneapolis.
From present indications the authorities are rather inclined to retain these vessels on this side of the Atlantic,
as they may run down any isolated ship which may be sent by Spain to prowl along the North Atlantic coast.

SPANISH ARMS CAPTURED AT SANTIAGO.

Scripps-McRae Service.
New York, July 19.—The Journal
has a special from Guantanamo
which says that the cities of Caiminera and Guantanamo have surrendered
and that four thousand Spanish soldiers have laid down arms in those places. These cities are included in the surrendered territory. Eight hundred of the prisoners are ill.

The Ward line will soon start a weekly steamer service to Santiago
from this city. The Philadelphia will be the first steamer to make the trip, leaving Saturday.

ENEMY WELL ARMED.

Washington, July 19.—The following dispatch from General Shafter shows how well the enemy was armed:

"Headquarters United States Army,
Santiago, July 17.
"To the Adjutant General, United States Army, Washington:

"My ordnance officers report about 7000 rifles turned in today and 600-000 cartridges. At the mouth of the harbor there are quite a number of fine modern guns, about six inch;
also two batteries of mountain guns,
together with a saluting battery of fifteen old bronze guns. Disarming and turning in will go on tomorrow.
List of prisoners not yet taken.

"SHAFER,
"Major General Commanding."

PEACE IS REMOTE.

Spain Seems to Take No Account of Her Misfortunes, and America Will Press On.

Washington, July 19.—The possibilities of peace are as remote as ever.
No move in that direction has been made by any of the foreign officials
here, and despite the pitiful condition of Spain, her pride appears to restrain her from making any direct overtures.
A cabinet official said it was amazing that Spain seemed to lack all comprehension of her deplorable condition. Her best fleets have been wiped out, her hold on the Philippines is practically at an end, and now she has approved Gen. Toral's surrender of 5,000 square miles of Cuban soil.

And yet, he said, Spain seems to take no account of her misfortunes, and to adopt no means to limit the extent of her defeat and losses.

Under such circumstances, he said,
the only thing left for this country to do is to press on until Spain reaches some comprehension of her impotence. It is with this end in view that active steps are being taken for further aggressive campaigns.

A HOME FOR CERVERA.

Port Tampa, July 19.—A movement was started here yesterday to present Admiral Cervera a home on Tampa bay in recognition of his humane and chivalric treatment of Lieut. Hobson and crew and a desire to save him from insult and possible
death should he return to Spain.

MERE SHOW VESSELS.

Madrid, July 19.—Some papers publish distressing accounts of the condition of Admiral Camara's squadron. The battleship Pelayo and the armored cruiser Empressor Carlos V., are in good condition, but the others are mere show vessels.

Ministers in their statements to the newspapers continue to declare peace
as impossible on the conditions America imposes. Though Spain appears reconciled to the loss of Cuba, there is much ill-feeling at England's supposed territorial designs on Gibraltar. The rise in the price of necessities is causing effervescence at Tarragona, Valencia, Seville and elsewhere.

CANNOT HELP HER PEOPLE.

London, July 19.—It is announced in a special dispatch from Barcelona that the inhabitants of that city are panic-stricken. They believe the Americans will select defenseless
Barcelona as the first point to bombard. The local banks are removing their specie to the country, the merchants are sending their goods to places of safety, and many are leaving. The governor of Barcelona has informed the people they cannot expect help from the government.

Fire Adds Its Terrors to the Destruction.

THE MURDERER BLOWN TO ATOMS.

Scripps-McRae Service.
San Francisco, July 19.—Yesterday a Chinese workman at the Melrose Powder Works near Oakland murdered a Chinese merchant and after the murder took refuge in the powder magazine, where he remained concealed during the night.

This morning when the officers were about to capture the murderer,
the desperate Chinaman fired a pistol shot into a can of powder causing a tremendous explosion, which not only completely demolished the building, but killed Constable Koch, Deputies White and Woodson and four other persons. Several other persons are severely wounded and will die, while the fiend himself was blown to atoms.

Mrs. Wood residing nearby the works has died as a result of the shock, while Mrs. Hall another near resident is expected to die.
Every building within a radius of three hundred yards of the powder magazine was razed to the ground by the terrific force of the explosion.
To add to the horror of the scene
the debris caught fire and the destruction was made complete. Ten box cars were burned.

WAS ACCIDENTAL.

Scripps-McRae Service.
Pompton, N. J., July 18.—In the coroner's inquest concluded today
over the eleven men who were killed by the recent powder mill explosion
here it was decided that the explosion was due to accidental causes.

MRS. PORTER AT SIBONEY.

Scripps-McRae Service.
Washington, D. C., July 19.— John Addison Porter, secretary to the president, has received a long and interesting letter from his wife, who is near Santiago, engaged in Red Cross work.

Mrs. Porter gives a vivid picture of the conditions prevailing at Sibo-ney and other ports near Santiago.
She says that if it had not been for the Red Cross hundreds of refugees, chiefly women and children, would have died for the want of supplies,
and the society was enabled to do work among the afflicted of all classes and nations. Mrs. Porter says that the act of the Spaniards in firing into Red Cross ambulances containing sick and wounded was the most dastardly known in the history of warfare.

QUIET AT MANILA.

Hong Kong, July 19.—The German cruiser Cormorant, from Manila, July 15, has arrived here. She reports that all was quiet at the capital of the Philippine islands when she left there. The insurgents had not advanced, the second American contingent had not arrived, and all the ships of the American fleet were at Cavite.

A Spanish Paper Accuses President McKin-

THE LOSS OF A SPANISH SHIP HAS BEEN CONFIRMED.

Scripps-McRae Service.
MADRID, July 19.—The president of the Madrid chamber of commerce has received twenty-five declarations in favor of peace from various chambers of commerce representing the coast districts. But none of the inland cities have declared their wishes either way.

This anxiety for peace on the part of the people along the coast, is caused partly by the general fear that Commodore Watson and his fleet may appear at any time. It is generally believed that Watson's fleet sailed several days ago and now may appear anywhere at any time.

The marine commandant at San Juan, Porto Rico, has cabled Corres, the minister of war, that an American cruiser fired upon and burned the Spanish trans-Atlantic line steamer Antonio Lopez.

CAPTURED SPANISH FLAG.

Scripps-McRae Service.
Washington, July 19.—The first battle flag captured to reach the war department was received by Corbin yesterday morning. It was captured at Jaragua, Cuba, June 23, by Company B, Twenty-second United States
infantry and the First brigade, second division of the Fifth army corps.
The capture was made by Corporals

GOVERNOR OF SANTIAGO.

Washington, July 19.—It is probable that Maj. Gen. A. R. Chaffee will be named as military governor of Santiago. A postoffice will be established at once and letters will be handled at domestic rates. The service will be extended as other towns are surrendered. The import tax assessed by Spain will be continued in force, except that the minimum rate, heretofore enjoyed only by Spain, will be the general rate.
This, with a reduction of tonnage charges, is expected to build up the business of the port.

The Cubans are not pleased with the situation at Santiago. They think Gen. Garcia should be made governor general of the surrendered territory, and threaten trouble if ignored. The residents of the city seem to regret the departure of the Spanish sovereignty, but are reconciled by American supplies of food.

A close inspection of the defenses of Santiago harbor show that they might have been forced without much trouble. The mines were not so formidable as supposed, and the batteries, with the exception of those on the west side of the entrance, were mainly formidable only in appearance.

POLICE COURT.

Few Cases of Public Interest in
This Tribunal This Morning.

Frank Minor Receives a Fine of $50 and Costs for Striking Ella Williams.

Gus Miller, who has been working for Langstaff & Orme, was charged this morning in the police court with a nameless offense. He was caught by Officers Smedley and Potter last night in a stable on Washington street, and denied his guilt in court this morning. The evidence was heard, and Judge Sanders held in abeyance his decision until tomorrow.
If guilty, Miller will go to the penitentiary. The prosecuting witness is a crippled white man, Edward Evans.

Frank Minor was charged with striking Ella Williams in the mouth.
They were near a well when the trouble occurred, and Prosecuting Attorney Campbell remarked that it would have been a good riddance if Minor had knocked her in the well.
The woman claimed the man struck her in the mouth with a stick, but Minor said it was his fist. He was fined $50 and costs for the offense, and will have to execute a bond to keep the peace when he serves his time. The case was left open, in order to ascertain if Minor struck the woman with a stick. If he did, he will be warranted for perjury.

Dora Edwards was charged with using insulting language towards John Kountz, but the case was continued.

A young man was fined $3 and costs for using insulting language towards a woman, who was in turn warranted for using insulting language towards him. The case against the latter was continued.
Bud Dobson, colored, was fined $20 and costs for gaming.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1898.

Some Illinois newspapers are "mentioning" Governor Tanner as a suitable Governor for the Ladrone Islands. What the Governor has done to merit such a sentence is hard to tell.

The present city council is following in the footsteps of its predecessors in funding part of the cities indebtedness. Let the good work proceed.

The correct thing now to do at well functions is to wear an internal revenue stamp on your shirt front. The larger the stamp the sweller the act. The stamps are to be cancelled by the hostess of the occasion.

It will cost Uncle Sam over a million dollars to transport his captive Spanish soldiers back to Spain. But he is willing to take the contract to send the rest of the Spanish troops in Cuba home to Spain, providing they surrender in a hurry.

The dumping of 24,000 half fed, half clothed and unpaid soldiers into Spain will in reality be "viewed with alarm" by the government there. Every one of those soldiers will be a witness of the incompetence of the government, of the inability of Spain to win, and of the vast power of the United States.

The stars and stripes float all right over one Morro Castle, and the charm of the famous name is broken. Morro Castle at San Juan, Porto Rico will soon be similarly decorated, and then if Spain does not sue for peace, the American army and navy will proceed to make things interesting about old Morro at Havana.

How about the streets being repaired? Does it take forever to make a move to do this work? The mayor has said it must be done. "Procrastination is the thief of time," this will be demonstrated when bad weather sets in. Not a day should be lost; the streets are in a very bad condition and business is retarded. There is plenty to be done to keep a large force busy every day for the balance of the year.

The action of the city council in making street extensions is a move in the right direction. Let the good work go on. While property is cheap, cross streets should be opened near the city limits connecting Tennessee street extended with Broadway, Broadway with Trimble street extended, and Trimble street with Twelfth street extended. Let the good work go on and build up a city. There is nothing that will build the city faster than a liberal extension of streets and pavements.

While indefinite rumors of coming peace proposals are many, as a matter of fact, the prospects of an early peace are not flattering. A cessation of actual hostilities may occur within thirty days. But a comparison of the respective peace terms show a vast difference. Spain is willing to give up Cuba, but she wants to retain Porto Rico and at least a good part of the Philippines. The United States will at least demand the independence of Cuba, the cession of Porto Rico, and whatever is done with the Philippines they can never be returned to Spain. These terms while moderate, mean to Spain the utter loss of the remnants of her once famous Empire, and this will be accepted by Spain only after a vast deal of remonstrance and delay.

It was frequently stated in these columns before the declaration of war was made, that the expulsion of the Spaniards from Cuba was only a part of the Cuban problem and that President McKinley was well aware of it. The occupation of Cuba has onl just begun and yet the Cubans are dissatisfied. Before Santiago had surrendered the Cubans had selected one of their own number to be governor of the city after it should be taken. And now that a military governor has been appointed without consulting them they are greatly disappointed. The United States will be held strictly responsible for the preservation of life and property, and the Cubans will not be granted entire freedom to act as they please, until they demonstrate their fitness to rule. The deciding of that point will be a source of great difficulty and will undoubtedly give us a "Cuban question" for many years, unless annexation shall soon take place.

DEATH TAKES A NOTED MAN.

Sketch of Gen. John S. Williams, Who Died at His Home, Near Mt. Sterling, on Sunday.

His Sobriquet of "Cerro Gordo" Was Won in the Mexican War. A Distinguished Politician. His Career as a Soldier.

Gen. John S. Williams died at his home near Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sunday morning. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure. An orator, soldier and statesman has passed away. He was a Christian gentleman and chivalrous Kentuckian. His death is mourned by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

Gen. Cerro Gordo Williams was born in Montgomery county July 19, 1818, and had lived until today would have been 80 years old. He was the son of Gen. Sam Williams and was educated in the common schools of Bourbon and Montgomery counties. After his graduation in law at Oxford college he located in Paris, Ky., to practice his profession. A few years later he married Miss Mary Harrison, a wealthy young lady of Clark county, abandoning the law to engage in farming. A few years later Mrs. Williams died, leaving one child, a daughter, Mrs. James H. Holloway, of Winchester.

When the Mexican war broke out, Gen. Williams organized the Clark county independent rifles, being elected captain. This company served with distinction throughout the Mexican war. At the battle of Cerro Gordo, Gen. Williams attained the sobriquet of "Cerro Gordo." When this company was mustered out of service Mr. Williams was given the colonelcy of the fourth regiment, William Preston lieutenant colonel and James Ward major. All these officers served in the civil war, Preston and Williams being on the confederate side and Ward on the union side. At the beginning of the civil war Gen. Williams joined the confederate army and was given a brigadier generalship. He served throughout the war with distinction and credit.

His political career was varied. In 1851 he was elected to the legislature from Clark and Montgomery counties, defeating Hon. Roger Hanson, in a bitter contest. After his term expired he was sent to Europe by the United States government as commissioner to observe military movements in the Crimean war. His associate was Gen. George B. McClelland. On his return he settled in Montgomery county, and in January, 1871, was again married, this time to Mrs. Henrietta Hamilton, who survives him.

In 1873 he represented Montgomery county in the legislature. He was a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor in 1875, being defeated by the fraction of a vote. In 1877 he was elected United States senator over Senator Lindsay, ex-Governor Knott and McCreary, and was defeated for re-election in 1883 by Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, is one of the most bitter political contests ever fought in Kentucky.

This closed his public career. He returned to Montgomery county, where he has since resided. Gen. Williams was an extensive traveler, having spent four years in Europe, Asia and Africa. For several months past he had been seriously ill and several times near death's door. The funeral services were conducted in Mt. Sterling yesterday at the Episcopal church, and he was buried in Winchester cemetery, by the side of his first wife.

A Singular Custom.

A singular custom prevails among the Tartars or Kurds. If a man gets into difficulties—i. e., loses his cattle or other movable property—he pours a little brown sugar into a piece of colored cloth, ties it up and carries one such parcel to each of his friends and acquaintances. In return he is presented, according to circumstances, with a cow, or sheep, or a sum of money. He is thus at once set on his legs again. The same method is adopted when a young man wishes to marry, but is not in a position to satisfy the parents of his intended bride in the matter of the "bushy"—i. e., marriage dowry. Only in this case he does not go round himself, but sends a friend or servant.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Floss Owen entertains next week with a large party. This will be a great treat for the young people. It being the first entertainment of the kind given for several seasons, and with Miss Owen as hostess there is no doubt of the success of the affair.

La Belle park was the scene last evening of one of the prettiest open air fetes ever given in the city, the occasion being a reproduction of the battle of Santiago.

The beautiful little lake was aglow with brilliant lights and fairly alive with American and Spanish vessels. At 8:30 the bombardment of cannon and firing of guns and shooting of fireworks made a beautiful scene, never to be forgotten by the immense crowd which had gathered to witness this marvelous naval display.

Mrs. Will Hughes, Mrs. Decker and daughters, Misses Myrtle and Helen, Chas. Reed, Rev. B. E. Reed and family, Misses Mattie Davis, Ethel Morrow, Mildred Terrell, May Terrell, Emma Reed and Elizabeth Simmott left yesterday morning for a week's stay at Dixon Springs.

Mr. Will C. Leech, left Sunday morning for St. Louis.

Mr. Arthur Board returned to Louisville last evening after a short stay in the city.

Mr. Allen Wade, of Nashville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sowell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Leech and Miss Martha Leech leave Thursday for California and Yellow Stone Park.

Mr. Will Sanders leaves this week for Creel Springs on a sojourn.

Mrs. Lloyd Boswell, Misses Mary and Anna Boswell and Mrs. H. G. Tandy leave Wednesday for Dixon Springs.

Mrs. Will Clements and children leave this week for Madison, Ind.

Miss Alice Johnson will leave Friday on the Sunshine for a six weeks' visit to friends and relatives in Ohio.

Few women of fashion in the larger cities have the time or inclination to attend to their correspondence with the promptness required by the rules of etiquette, and as many of them receive a large number of letters every day that require attention, the service of a secretary has become necessary. So another field of enterprise has been opened to women who are eager to be independent. It is that or acting as private secretary for leaders of fashionable society. The secretary does not use a typewriter. Society correspondence is not machine work; it is all done by hand and pen. It is not essential even for the secretary to use shorthand. The secretary opens the mail in the morning and arranges the letters in their proper order. When madame is ready the secretary reads the letters to her and notes on the margin of each the nature of reply that is to be made. Madame merely remarks "Accept," "Decline," "Previous engagement," or indicates by a word or two her wishes. The wording of the reply is left to the secretary, who, therefore, must be familiar with the various forms of polite phraseology, and must write an aristocratic "hand." The work is not arduous and the pay is fairly good. It is more pleasant work than office work. Intelligence and tact are the chief requirements, and there must be no mistakes.

WELL DRESSED WOMEN.

Becomingness is the creed which should be daily preached to the Nineteenth century women on the great subject of fashion. No woman should be a slave to her dressmaker, for however great a genius that person may be, there are certain little touches which come from one's self that alone give originality. The perfection in dressing lies in the well fitting boots, gloves, fresh ribbons and vells.

The doubtful colors of the season can only be worn by women who have style.

A slender woman certainly has the advantage over the stout ones this season. She can be frilly and puffy enough to suit the ambitions of the most enthusiastic summer girl. She revels in tucks and stripes. Plaids of brilliant hues and large designs are blithely donned. The '98 shirt waist with its puffed front that hides the angles, and the sailor blouse, so fashionable, are particularly becoming to her.

The much beruffled skirt in taffeta of all colors is the prize summer possession of the well gowning woman.

On account of the popularity of the shirt waist, handsome belts are very much in demand. Some beautiful designs are shown in sterling silver and gold set with mock jewels.

All the old fashioned stones from chrysochroite to canoes are in favor, and coral and dulled silver is the height of elegance this season. White chiffon picture hats are very fashionable this summer, and are especially pretty when worn by the possessor of an attractive, youthful face.

The newest shade in blues is best described as the shade of cornflower when it has begun to fade.

To be strictly up-to-date you must insure a "bouffé" effect. This feat can be accomplished by wearing double skirts, with fluffy ruffles from hem to waist or narrow ruffles, trimming them profusely.

SPAIN'S DECADENCE.

From the Reign of Philip II. She Has Steadily Gone Down Hill.

On his accession to the Spanish throne, Philip II. found himself ruler of the greatest empire the world had seen since Rome was at the zenith of its power. Its neighbors were famous for their greatness and they ruled the ocean, its armies were famous for their prowess, she swayed the destinies of Europe, had possessions in all the continents, and may be said to have owned the Americas, North and South. Samuel Johnson writing as recently as 1740, when complaining of the poor people's hardships, said: "Are there no regions yet unclaimed by Spain? Quick, let us rise, those happy lands explore. And bear oppression's insolence no more."

The Spanish empire was the result of marriages, conquest and discovery; its decline and fall may be ascribed to the ruthless character of the Spanish people. The question of and bull fighting were evolutions from this character; Torquemada and the matador were no more cruel than the nature of the people required. Cardinals were frequently prime ministers, and Tamerlane never treated Central Asians more mercilessly than Spain treated the Indians of North America. When Columbus discovered San Domingo it had a population of 2,000,000; in 1530 this population had dwindled to 250,000. Cortez in Mexico and Pizarro in Peru were ideal Spanish conquerors.

In the latter part of Philip's reign Spain lost all, or nearly all, of her dependencies in North Africa, and early in the next reign, Burgundy, Naples, Sicily and the Milanese.

1608—The Netherlands.
1638—Malacca, Ceylon, Java and other islands.

1640—Portugal.
1648—Spain renounced all claim to Holland.

1648—Brabant and part of Flanders.
1649—Maastricht, Hertogenbosch, Breda, Bergen-op-Zoom, and many other fortresses in the low countries.

In this year also she tacitly surrendered supremacy on the seas in northern Europe.

1659—Rousillon and Cardagne. Those places were ceded to France, thus making the Pyrenees the boundary between the two countries.

1668—Other sections of Flanders.
1672—Many towns and cities in Flanders.

1704—Gibraltar.
1704—Majorca, Minorca and Ibiza.

1791—The Nootka Sound settlements.
1794—San Domingo
1800—Louisiana.
1802—Trinidad.
1819—Florida.

1810-21—Mexico, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chili, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Patagonia, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, San Salvador, Hayti, San Domingo, besides numerous islands, retaining not a foot of ground in America.

In 1898 she may lose Cuba, Puerto Rico, the Philippine islands and the Ladrone and Caroline islands.

During all those years, while other nations were discovering new regions or capturing those discovered, or conquering by Spain, the land of the Cid Campeador was going steadily down the hill. The only time she stood still was in 1860, when Marshal O'Donnell took Tetuan and Ceuta from the Moors.

In the heyday of Moroccan ascendancy, Spain had a population of 20,000,000, in the time of Ferdinand and Isabella 12,000,000, and in the beginning of the eighteenth century only 6,000,000. The present population is about 18,000,000.

It may be said in conclusion that education in Spain is limited to comparatively few. Thirty or forty years ago it was no disgrace for a Spanish grandee not to be able to write his own name.—N. Y. Herald.

Argument

Is not necessary to convince a thinking person that money is thrown away when invested in a typewriter that has not passed its experimental period.
Years of hard, thoughtful effort and continual experimenting are necessary before reaching approximate perfection in a writing machine. Is it wisdom, then, for one to contribute to this cost of experiment?

Reputation Established

Years of experience, constantly increasing sales the world over—the natural result of typewriter excellence—is the unquestioned record of

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER.

When you buy a Smith Premier you obtain a writing machine that is in advance of all others in points of improvement and durability. Do not pay for the costly experiments of others. The Smith Premier passed its experimental period years ago. It now stands the leader among writing machines. Descriptive catalogue free.

A Challenge

To prove the superiority of the Excelsior bicycle and to demonstrate to the people of Paducah which is the best bicycle, we make the following challenge: We will put our string of riders against any other riders mounted on any other different make of wheel—the best preferred; open races, from one quarter to three miles, to be sanctioned by L. A. W., at any time, at any suitable place.

We claimed to have mounted on our wheels the majority of the best riders in Paducah. Afterwards we learned that others claimed the same honor. We will back our word, because we advertise what we believe to be the truth. We don't lie in the harbor like Cervera and claim to have the best boats and superior gunners; but, like Sampson, we are waiting for a battle. And when all is over you will have learned that those——are as inferior as Cervera's cruisers when compared with the Excelsior.

Will see you later and explain why you should ride an Excelsior. We are agents for the only wheel that bears the union label. All kinds of bicycles repaired.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

The Mayflower is due from St. Louis tomorrow. She connects here with the Stags for the Tennessee, and returns to St. Louis as soon as she can transact business.

The City of Sheffield arrived from St. Louis last night at 11 o'clock, en route up the Tennessee. She had a big trip of freight and had to secure a lighter here to assist her over the shallow place.

The Dick Fowler was out for Cairo at 8:30 this morning. She is now handling considerable wheat daily to Cairo.

The John S. Hopkins continues to come and go to Evansville, notwithstanding the low stage of water.

The new upper Cumberland river packet was launched at Howard's ship yards yesterday afternoon. She will be a very handsome, well built boat when complete.

The Buckeye State, from New Orleans, is over due here on account of burning her boilers below Memphis, and remained there several hours patching them. She is expected up today.

The inspectors will arrive here this afternoon from Nashville to inspect the steamer Mary N. They will also hold an investigation in regard to an engineer weighting his safety valve and going to sleep while on duty.

There is a large amount of wheat at Ogden's Landing to go to Cairo, but on account of that being such a flat place the boats can't reach it. A barge will be taken down tomorrow and the wheat loaded on it.

The stage of water is still going downward here, the gauge showing a fall of 5-tenths during the past 24 hours. The marks on the gauge registered 4.6.

The rise in the upper Ohio paused out as was expected, but will effect nothing this far down, owing to its dwarfed nature.

The Penguin leaves tomorrow for Savannah, Tenn., after a big raft of logs.

The H. W. Butteroff is due out of the Cumberland river early tomorrow morning and will leave returning up that stream at noon.

It is with difficulty now that labor can be secured to coal steamboats. They have formerly been paying 25 cents per hundred bushels to regular coalers, but they now demand 75 cents. The Sunshine was delayed here several hours and had to pay the price the strikers demanded before they could get enough coal put aboard to carry her to Cairo.

DID NOT KNOW.

Thomas Simms in Trouble. He Hails From Florida.

Thomas Simms, a colored minister of the gospel, who came here from Florida several months ago, will be tried before Justice Settle Friday on a charge of marrying people without having taken out the proper license.

He is alleged to have performed several ceremonies. The penalty is a severe fine. Simms said to a reporter this morning that where he came from the ministers did not have to have a license. Any ordained minister in Florida may marry people without having a license, and he thought they could do it in Kentucky, too. Had he known a license was necessary, he said, he would have taken one out immediately. He has always been a law abiding citizen, he claims, and if he has violated the law, it was not intentional.

INSURANCE ADJUSTORS.

They Are Expected by Monday to Begin Work.

The stock of the late Kentucky Glass & Queensware Co., is today being moved into the building formerly occupied by Nosh's Ark, on Broadway near Third, in order that the insurance inspectors may more quickly and satisfactorily do their work. Mr. Dugan, one of the adjustors, was here today. The others will arrive Monday.

Preparations are being made to begin rebuilding, and work will doubtless begin as soon as practicable.

PADUCAH CAPITALISTS.

May Buy the Springs up in Livingston County.

It is reported that a party of Paducah capitalists contemplate the purchase of the newly discovered springs in Livingston county, near Smithland, their intention being to convert them into a summer resort, build a fine hotel, and make Livingston one of the most important counties in the state.

The springs are said to be very fine, and to yield waters of great curative qualities in innumerable quantities. Their discovery augurs well for Livingston that portion of which has been isolated from the rest of the world ever since it was conceived.

This is the proper season for making your wines and cordials. Telephone to the Kentucky Distilling Co. and get your whiskey and brandy. Purity and age guaranteed. 1935

A PICTURESQUE COSTUME.

Dresses Worn by New Haven Fishwives That Are Very Becoming.

The ordinary dress of the fishwife consists of from three to nine woolen petticoats, reaching about half-way from the knee to the ankle and measuring at least three yards in width. All the underones have a tuck in the waist and a half deep run all the way round the top about an eighth of a yard below the waistband. This is done for the purpose of making a more solid support for the basket upon which the creel rests.

Each fishwife, rich or poor, is the possessor of three gay petticoats, which are worn over the dark flannel ones; the foundation is white and all are marked with broad vertical stripes of solid, vivid coloring, red, yellow, or blue. Each one has a wide tuck about six inches from the bottom. The bodices are loose jackets, "shuguns," or short gowns, made of bright-colored cambric or calico, and confined at the waist by the apron strings; the sleeves are made of a square of the cambric reaching nearly to the wrists, but they are nearly always rolled over two or three times until they come only to the elbow. A bright ribbon confines the garment at the neck and finishes it with a bow and ends. The apron is long and full; the lower edge and the outer skirt are pinned together at the bottom and caught up to the hips on either side, which adds to the width, making the woman look broader than ever. A separate pocket fastened with a draw-string is worn underneath the apron; this is the fishwife's bank, where she carries the money of the family, which is always given into her keeping. Thick worsted stockings and heavy, high boots complete, with the exception of the headgear, a picturesque and very becoming costume.—Laura B. Starr, in Chautauquan.

Highest Bridge in Europe.

The bridge over the Wupperthal at Mungsten, Germany, which was opened to railway traffic on July 1, 1897, is 360 feet high, 1,630 feet long, and has a central span of 590 feet, it being the highest European bridge, with the exception of the Garabit viaduct in southern France, which is 405 feet in height.

What She Calls Him.

"All wives have pet names for their husbands," remarked Mr. Dinwiddie to Mr. Beechwood. "My wife calls me 'Baby.' What does your wife call you?"

"My wife calls me down, generally," replied Mr. Beechwood.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

JUDGE TULLY'S COURT.

A Session This Morning and This Afternoon.

County Judge Tully held court morning, and heard a motion in the Muller will case.

As will doubtless be remembered, the will purporting to be that of Mrs. Barbara Muller was set aside by the circuit court, and the relatives today moved that the executor be required to execute bond.

The court, however, seems to be of the opinion that as the will was set aside, the executor, who derived his authority from the will is no longer executor, and that there is none. The decision was reserved.

This afternoon Robt. Coleman, a white barber, will be tried for setting up a game.

It was intended to try five petty larceny cases, but at press time the witnesses had not showed up.
